The Insurer Perspective

INSURANCE IS AN ASSET - LEGACY INSURANCE IMPLICATIONS

- Whose insurance is it...understand the “corporate history” of acquisitions and predecessor companies
- Map the years of exposure to the earliest available policies
- Examine solvency status and possible erosion to determine viable coverage
- Research past agreements
- Proof of insurance standards – secondary and other source material
- Collaborative process to unlock archives
- Be proactive
 - Timely noticing
 - Strive for a normalized claims relationship
- Review and organize legacy coverages for future claims
