

12/5/11 Perrin Conferences Hosts Anticipating Tomorrow: A Symposium on Emerging Life Insurance Issues, Discussing Insurance Matters Ranging from Regulation to Securities

Perrin Conferences hosts December 5-6, 2011 "Anticipating Tomorrow: A Symposium on Emerging Life Insurance Issues," discussing emerging life insurance matters ranging from regulation to security.

Berwyn, PA (PRWEB) October 26, 2011 -- Meeting at The Philadelphia Westin, Philadelphia, PA, the Life Insurance Industry's top corporate counsel and compliance professionals will be convening to discuss significant, emerging, and long-term issues for the industry.

Chairs Stephen Baker, a nationally known litigator, partner, and leader at Drinker Biddle & Reath's Life Insurance & Annuities Practice and Elizabeth McCrohan, Vice President and Senior Corporate Counsel at The Prudential Insurance Company of America will lead this symposium to engage participants in discussions regarding ongoing challenges for the industry including regulatory, underwriting, administration, and claims handling issues.

In this day and a half symposium, significant trends, emerging issues, solutions and best-practices taking place in the Life Insurance Industry will be given in-depth coverage in both presentation and interactive formats between peers and experts to cover topics including:

Risk Management and Privacy Concerns

State Regulatory Financial "Grabs" (including, but not limited to, unclaimed property)

Secondary Market for Life Insurance: An Update

Rebating and Other Recently-Emerging Policy Placement Schemes

Equity-Indexed Universal Life Products

Annuities: What's Next?

Social Media: Tool and Threat

Financial Frauds and Their Consequences: Ponzi Schemes, Receiverships, Insolvencies, & Bankruptcies

A Reinsurance Forum

Presented by Drinker Biddle and Reath, LLP, this Life Insurance Symposium brings together industry thought leaders to engage in unparalleled discussions. All insurance and government counsel, as well as compliance professionals, receive a complimentary registration.

For registration and hotel information, please visit PerrinConferences.com. At least nine hours of CE/CLE credit will be offered for this event.

Perrin Conferences is a national leader in hosting legal and insurance-based continuing education programs and is highly regarded for delivering informational and engaging, interactive conferences attended by the legal and insurance industries' leading experts and key influencers. For information on this and other events, please visit www.PerrinConferences.com.